

Shadow-caster Marine

SCR Series

Underwater LED Light Series

Description:

The SCR series underwater LED lights are designed to be marine vessel hull mounted for continuous submersion in sea water. These models offer a great value and small 4" diameter to fit many locations. Multiple brightness options are available as well as single or multicolor.

Features:

- Transient surge protection
- Reverse polarity protection
- Thermal throttling technology protects light for safe operation out of the water
- Optional dimming and strobe control
- Fully potted design cannot take on water
- Glass lens is impervious to acetone
- Single color light available Colors: Great White, Bimini Blue
- Color changing light has 16 pre-programmed colors stand alone or up to 265 colors with controller
- Submersible grade cable, custom lengths available.

